Christie Buckingham – Impromptu Prophecy

Just very quickly, the... Stephanie and Sam. Now, I didn't get that from the Lord; I got it from him (Ben Chia). (laughs) Just in case you think I'm really good. Um... Stephanie, you have a formidable anointing on you to lead women – just remarkable. I see you at a world level in capacity for that – in the future, not tomorrow, you know. (laughing) Just in— you have an incredible quality in you. I see incredible intelligence, but it's not just that. It's the warmth and practical application; you're not so academic that you're unapproachable and I just see quality on both of you. I know you're not engaged at this stage – not saying anymore! (laughing) But, both of you – whether independently or together, cover both grounds, have got incredible futures, and it will involve being with somebody like each other. And it will involve pastoring. Without question. And that's why both of you have got to make sure that you get a partner that has equal to capacity. And let me always say that in any partnership, you're only as strong as the weakest link. And people can lead in a strong way or lead in a weak way. And women are so important that they don't lead in a weak way; so important that women who're in a relationship lead from strength and know who they are.
